Happenings in Town of General Interest—What Our Merchants Offer in the Way of Trade Inducements

City Trustee Chas. B. McDevitt and Emile ("Dutch") Andrews enjoyed the Fourth in the Bay City.

For Rent Building suitable for store or office, next to J. Lucio's shoe shop, near postoffice. Inquire H. E. Calderwood.

One of Sonoma's charming and popular girls, Miss Anita Breitenbach, was entertained by her aunt, Mrs. C. Louis Kopf, in the City of Roses over the Fourth.

Charles M. Belshaw, of Antioch, was a distinguished visitor in this section, Monday. Mr. Belshaw aspires to the Governorship of California on the Republican ticket.

The ineipient blaze, noted by us last week, and which occurred on July 1st, in one of the rooms of the Gobar Sanatorium, resulted in the contents being damaged to the extent of $13.25, which has been adjusted and paid to Dr. Gobar by Chas. Dal Poggetto, local agent for the Phoenix Insurance Company.

Children's Day Service will be held in the Methodist Episcopal Church on July 12th at 11 a. m. In addition to music and recitations by the school, the superintendent, Rev. H. W. Waltz will tell, in a short address, how Children's Day originated in the Methodist Episcopal Church, its purpose, and the wonderful good it has accomplished.

The California Telephone and Lighting Company put in a line on Germany street, this week, extending as far as the Lane home, formerly the property of Geo. Engler. A telephone has already been put in the residence of Mr. Lane, and electric power will be at once installed for lighting and other purposes. Other residents along the newly-lighted thoroughfare will greatly appreciate the convenience.

In today's issue appears the last installment of the very interesting descriptions of the travels of Chas. Spindler through South America. Leaving there in April, Mr. Spindler intended to go through Europe, south as far as the Swiss Republic, north to Denmark, spending a fortnight in Germany and also in England. "Therefore," writes Mr. Spindler, "it will be the end of July ere I shall have the pleasure of seeing you again. The letters written for this paper by the gentleman have been a source of entertainment and benefit to readers of the Index-Tribune.

Reuben Woodworth, who is a student at the Polytechnic School of Engineering, has arrived home from Berkeley to spend the summer vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Woodworth. To the regret of many friends, Reuben has been very ill this week, arising from an attack of appendicitis. Dr. A. M. Thomson, who has been in attendance, reports his patient as well on the road to recovery, a fact it affords us pleasure to note.

W. M. (Mace) Tucker and family, including the aged father of the gentleman, were guests at the Union Hotel, Tuesday. "Mace" Tucker is a candidate for sheriff of this county, throughout which he is well and favorably known, having for thirty years been associated with the Noonan Meat Market of Santa Rosa as cattle buyer. The cards handed about by the aspirant for sheriff, upon which was his picture, elicited many comments as being typically representative of the "sheriff of days gone by"—the firm, clear-cut face; the heavy, drooping moustache; and the tilt of the soft, slouch hat being remarkably characteristic.

Louis Lencioni, of San Francisco, was called upon to answer to the charge of battery before Judge Campbell, Thursday, Marshal Jas. H. Albertson making the arrest. The young man was a guest at a local hotel, and got into a controversy with a girl friend, in the course of which his companion applied to him an epithet hurtful to his pride and dignity, and which he resented by slapping the girl. Her father preferred the charge of battery against Lencioni, who was fined ten dollars, as a result of his manliness. The young man is twenty-two years of age, and his companion about sixteen. The young people have been friends for years.

Gus Wev was among the many Sonoma residents in Napa Saturday.

For Sale—A gentle, buggy horse, suitable for family use. Apply at this office.

Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Duhring were visitors in San Francisco for the day Thursday.

Miss Henrietta Webber is enjoying the pleasure of a visit from her friend, Miss Alice Berg, of San Francisco.

Wanted—By the Sonoma Valley Canning Company, at Buena Vista all varieties of green fruits, for which the highest market prices will be paid.

Miss Nan Burke returned to San Francisco, Sunday, after a three weeks' sojourn in Sonoma. Mrs. John Burke, who spent the day here, returned with her daughter to the metropolis.

John F. Picetti was a leading Sonoma spirit to participate in the festivities at Napa on the Fourth. Jack says Napa certainly "done herself proud," as the celebration was a success in every way.

Miss Lydia Culbertson enjoyed the Fourth at Napa, where the day was observed in genuine "red, white and blue" style. Other Sonoma young ladies in different parties were the Misses Alice Ruble and Isabel Trudgen.

The many Sonoma friends of R. L. Lynch will be glad to learn that he is again connected with the California Telephone and Lighting Company, having accepted the position of foreman of the line crew at Ukiah. Mr. and Mrs. Lynch have taken up their residence in the county seat town of Mendocino.

A small boy, sojourning with his mother at the Clark ranch, on the Petaluma road, fell from a tree Saturday last, breaking his right leg. Dr. Hays placed the injured member in temporary splints, made the unlucky little victim of the accident comfortable, and on Sunday mother and child returned to their home in San Francisco.

S. B. Lewis, Sonoma's genial and reliable butcher, is treating the interior of his shop to a fine new dress of spotless white, which adds greatly to the appearance of the place of business, where the most courteous of treatment and the choicest cuts of meats await patrons. The painting and decorating of the shop is in the capable hands of A. L. Wells, who is one of the best in his line.

Theodor Richards, proprietor of Agua Caliente Springs, is to be congratulated on having secured the efficient services of Fred T. Hansen, to manage the music for the season at the popular resort. Associated with Mr. Hansen are a first-class violinist and pianist from San Francisco. With the addition of Sonoma's expert drummer, Caliente unquestionably will be favored by the dance-loving public. The pleasure-giving pastime continues until eleven-thirty o'clock every evening at Agua Caliente Springs.

Dr. Ethel Lynn, of San Francisco, who has been nominated for Secretary of State by the State Socialist organization, will speak at the high school, Sonoma, on next Saturday night, July 18th, at eight o'clock. The speaker is one of the foremost women orators in California, and took an active part in the fight for Woman Suffrage in 1910. If you are interested in political, economic and industrial questions, Dr. Lynn's lecture will please you. The public is cordially invited to attend. No admission charged, but a collection will be taken up.

The races at Petaluma drew a large crowd of local sports to that city. Some good events were "pulled off," affording lots of interest to the big crowd assembled at the track. Our local horsemen were fairly successful, coming home moderately satisfied with victories won. Joe Ryan won two straight heats with Spreckles' Miss Rooney. Tom Millerick's Clara C. was also a winner, while Lady Stillwell, owned by Leland Brubeck, was second in the race of her class. M. E. Cummings served as one of the judges. Mr. Ryan paid compliments to the Petaluma horsemen for the many courtesies extended the visitors.

Dr. C. W. Harvey motored to Napa to help celebrate the nation's birthday.

Eric and Donald Bateman and Girvin Wait came up from Berkeley and visited in Sonoma over the Fourth.

Misses Martha Landgraf and Irma Adler returned, Thursday of last week, after a two weeks' stay with relatives and friends in San Francisco.

J. B. Hatcher, representing G. H. Tyson, general agent fire insurance, was here from San Francisco, Monday, adjusting loss sustained in the Gobar Sanatorium fire.

The regular monthly meeting of the Sonoma Valley Chamber of Commerce will be held at the City Hall, Monday evening. The election of officers, scheduled for last month's meeting but postponed on account of small attendance, will be held at this meeting. All members are earnestly requested to be present, thus insuring general satisfaction at selection of officers for ensuing term.

Tomorrow will occur the formal opening of the fine hotel, which has been erected by Otto Schumann, at Buena Vista. The hotel, a two-story structure, is pleasantly located, and is fitted and furnished with careful thought for the comfort and convenience of guests. The house will be run German style, and Mr. Schumann intends catering principally to family trade. The new hotel should and no doubt will enjoy liberal patronage. Mr. and Mrs. Schumann are worthy, reputable people, who will conduct an orderly, respectable resort, and for whom we bespeak success in their new venture.

B. Cabanot, owner of the French Cottage at Boyes' Springs, was the victim of a very painful accident, on Saturday last. Mr. Cabanot was driving during the afternoon, and his horse, taking fright, ran away, colliding with another conveyance, throwing him out. The injured man was carried into the Frank Goad residence, and Dr. W. B. Hays summoned to attend him. Although his head was badly cut, and he suffered severely from the shock of the occurrence, Mr. Cabanot did not sustain injuries of a serious nature. The gentleman had a most fortunate escape, upon which many friends are congratulating him.

Chatting with L. M. Bish, foreman of Madrone Vineyard, which is owned by the Great Western Vineyard Company, Thursday, we were informed by that gentleman that prospects for the season's crop of grapes are decidedly promising. Mr. Bish says that while the yield may not be quite as heavy as that of last year, yet it will vary but little. Last season six hundred and seventy-three tons were harvested. Madrone Vineyard covers almost two hundred and fifty acres, which are planted to wine grapes, than which nothing finer are grown in the State. But two acres were planted this season. The product of Madrone Vineyard is shipped in its entirety to Santa Rosa, where the Great Western Vineyard Company operates an immense winery.

VINEBURG

Albert Groskopf, Jr., the genial and popular auto-truck driver of John Batto & Sons, motored the following-named, well-known poultrymen of Sonoma Valley to Petaluma, on July 4th, where they united with their brethren of the "egg city" in helping to make the eagle scream on the anniversary of American independence. Messrs. T. Harris, W. J. Harris, W. J. Hiser, Henry Hiser, E. C. Cliff, H. D. Burnmaster, Carl Bolin, A. Sychrowsky, E. E. Bennett and Frank Joost. The auto-truck was tastefully decorated with the national colors and pennants and attracted much attention in the big parade.

Miss Emma Engelhardt, one of San Francisco's fairest daughters, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Rehsag, at their home on the Hyde tract, returned to the metropolis, Monday, well pleased with Vineburg.

From the looks of things, there must be some fruit in this part of the valley, as there has been three straight carloads of box hooke unloaded at Batto's spur in the last three weeks, amounting to about 25,000 boxes, and 400 reams of paper also.

The fat man's foot race between Jim L. Modini, the Sonoma baseball magnate, and Henry Pape, of Vineburg, was not pulled off on July 4th. Mr. Modini couldn't run on account of a puncture in his left ear, and he had to go to Petaluma to have his dew necktie operated on. Jim Small holds the stakes—one hundred dollars—and it is about time for Jim to take his summer vacation. Look out, Pape!

One of the busy men of Vineburg at the present time is our genial station agent, Grover Rubke, who has all that is coming to him, receiving and delivering the large amount of freight and express business transacted at this point every day. Still, for all that, Grover is always happy and pleasant.

George Cassidy, we hear, intends to stage a Wilu. West show on the new race track on Admission Day, and has engaged Jake Mayers, John Douglas, John Robin, Pete Bosch, and Jim Small, all "star" performers, for the occasion. Jim Small will "loop the loop" on a wheelbarrow. "Come one, come all."

Minnie Maddern informs me that the Five O'clock Tea Club will hold a meeting on next Saturday afternoon, to decide as to which county officers now running will receive the club's support, as all members are voters. Miss Maddern will report tee meeting next week. EASY JIM.

SCHELLVILLE

Mrs. P. Whitman and son, Harold, are having a delightful vacation at Locust Grove. Among others who are domiciled at the Grove are Mrs. E. Campbell and Mrs. Guerin (nee Florence Belknap), who was among other teachers when the Grove boasted of a school.

Harold Pauli and family expect to occupy the Ernest Arbogast place in a few days. This property was purchased by Ed Hoegman, of San Francisco, a brother of Mrs. Pauli. Mr. Hoegman is well-known here, and his many friends extend to him a hearty welcome.

Jos. F. Ryan, our coming sheriff, motored through here, Monday. He can rest assured that all of the women here, as well as the men, will cast their votes for him.

Mesdames Hopke, Akers and Moebes are proud possessors of classy, new buggies, and these vehicles, drawn by fine horses, show up nicely on our roads.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Helberg entertained a few friends over the week-end.

Fred Poulsen, of Sonoma, was fishing down this way recently, but Fred was not very successful, and said that "fishes was jist like girls: der best von always gets away."

Among the many families to enjoy the Fourth of July celebration at Petaluma, were those of Jos. Keechler, M. Millerick, F. W. Dohbel, H. Rubke, Jos. Keiser, R. L. Watt and Erhard Steiger. All report a huge day of pleasure and pronounce the celebration a great success.

Mrs. E. Marti, of Petaluma, had a pleasant visit from the Misses Betty and Lena Yenni over July Fourth.

Mrs. R. S. Walt (nee Frances Leahy), who has been spending the last three years in Denver, Col., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Erhard Steiger, this week. Having frequently visited here in the past, Mrs. Walt is well known and many friends in the valley greet her with pleasure.

Mrs. Emma Steddom was hostess to a number of her friends over the holidays.

HAPPY JACK.

MORE CAPTURES TO HIS RECORD

Deputy Sheriff Joseph F. Ryan, Sonoma's aspirant for the office of sheriff of this county, added two more captures to his record this week, with the quietude of a cat, and which is the most necessary qualification in the man who aspires to that office. That is one of the foremost reasons why Joe Ryan has achieved his enviable reputation, and that is why he'd give to Sonoma County the best service it has ever had. Knowing the facts, he starts after the culprit. Ever on the alert, never relaxing vigilance, utterly regardless of fatigue Officer Ryan pursues his search relentlessly until he lands his man.

The first was the securing of Ed Stack, an escaped patient from the Napa State Hospital for the Insane. The unfortunate man was found in a local saloon Saturday night. He was returned to the State institution Sunday morning.

The other was the arrest of Lloyd Waller, a sixteen-year-old boy, who is an inmate of the Preston Reform School at Lone. The boy was one of several brought up from the school, last week, to pick berries at Sebastopol. Waller ran away, starting for Chico. He had reached Madrone, this side of Glen Ellen when found and taken into custody.

Many Visitors to the Valley.

Sonoma Valley was thronged with visitors over the Fourth. The capacities of all the resorts, as well as every local and suburban hotel were taxed to their utmost. In fact, accommodations were inadequate to handle the influx of visitors. Visitors to San Francisco, Saturday morning, report thousands leaving the city for an outing in the country. On the other hand, the great metropolis of the west entertained country folk in vast numbers—business and other busy people taking advantage of the "closed-for-two-days" to visit the Exposition grounds, theatres and other points of interest and pleasure.

Passing of a Great Dog.

Duke of Glasgow, a blue ribbon dog, who was raised from a little puppy by the late Chas. H. Ohm, died last Monday at the home of Mrs. Frank W. Boynton, a sister-in-law of Mr. Ohm. The Duke of Glasgow was the sire of some of the finest Collie dogs ever bred in this State, and was a noble and intelligent animal. He was about thirteen years old, and died from old age. He was interred beneath the eucalyptus trees on the north side of the Boynton home.

BIG DOINGS AT BOYES' SPRINGS

Lander Stevens and Georgie Cooper in New Drama—Pearl Hickman To Dance.

Big doings at Boyes' Theatre last night—bigger doings tonight. To report the program arranged for last night will reach readers of the Index-Tribune too late to induce or insure a larger attendance at the popular playhouse. But a fact to be stated is that all who were present last night will be on hand tonight.

Moreover, tonight's are the attractions which will really attract, because they are so decidedly worth while. Every feature programmed is a classic in its line, and the audience will conclude it has been treated to an Orpheum vaudeville.

Mr. and Mrs. Lander Stevens (Georgie Cooper), who need no introduction to the people of Sonoma Valley are to appear for the first time in the drama, "My Friend." The popular couple, who have been spending a few days at the resort, leave tomorrow for San Francisco, where they open an engagement at The Pantages the same evening in their new drama, which was written by Willard Mack. Mr. and Mrs. Stevens are prime favorites here as elsewhere, and both are eminently successful in their stage work.

Miss Pearl Hickman—the clever sister of Art Hickman—will dance, dainty, graceful Irish dances, with that poetry of motion which has won for her the reputation of being one of the most finished dance artists in the metropolis.

Miss Helen Lecain, of the Gaiety Theatre, will be heard in song. Miss Lecain is said to possess a dash and fascinating personality most pleasing and her numbers are an unfailing source of entertainment.

William Gould, German comedian, a veritable "prince of good fellows," and a leader among Pantages patrons, will entertain with his rollicks, sure of winning approbation.

There will be shown some excellent moving pictures, the program to be followed by dancing, with that "rag, rag, raggedy" music sufficiently inspiring to set every one who knows a step in motion. Cleve Meyer is certainly a "crackerjack" at the piano.

Art Hickman, too, will be on hand. The popular amusement manager has been quite ill during the week, but Dr. Thomson says his patient will be in "fit" condition to preside as master of ceremonies tonight.

The price of admission, be it understood, is only twenty-five cents.

TOURISTS HAVE NARROW ESCAPE

A party of tourists, en route to Calistoga, had a most miraculous escape from shocking death or serious injury on the evening of the Fourth.

The accident occurred at the bridge, opposite the Sonoma Valley Lumber Yard, and a short distance from the Feters' Hot Springs. Nearing the bridge, the driver of the car was momentarily blinded by the powerful flashlight of an automobile coming from the opposite direction, preventing his perceiving the danger that lay ahead, and he proceeded onward. The machine struck the railing of the bridge, turned turtle, and went over the bridge, a distance of several feet. That the occupants were not pinned beneath the car was miraculous, as it turned completely over. Raising as it did on opposite sides of the creek, however, its passengers were enabled to crawl to safety.

No one was injured save the driver, who had one hand severely burned by gasoline, the injury being dressed by Dr. W. B. Hays. The ladies of the party very naturally suffered severely from the shock of the occurrence.

Assistance arriving speedily from Feters, Springs, the machine was rescued from destruction by fire. The party spent the night at Mrs. Farrell's, "The Oaks," continuing their journey next day. Not having registered, however, we are unable to give the names of the several ladies and gentlemen.

Jas. W. Ramage for County Treasurer.

James W. Ramage of Santa Rosa, candidate for County Treasurer, was in this city Wednesday for the second time since the primary campaign opened and was heartily greeted by his many friends and supporters here. That he will poll a big vote in this valley goes without the saying, for in addition to being thoroughly competent to discharge the duties of the office he seeks he has a fine personality that any man may well envy.

Mr. Ramage, is a native of California, having been born in Contra Costa county. He came to this county in 1886 and located in Santa Rosa, and has resided there ever since, following different lines of business, both clerical and commercial. For the past fourteen years he has been the circulation manager of the Press Democrat, Sonoma county's leading daily, and has made good in that department of the paper. Mr. Ramage is a Republican but is being supported by voters all over the county regardless of politics.

Mr. Ramage is prominent in fraternal circles, being a Past Exalted Ruler of Santa Rosa Lodge, B. P. O. E., a prominent Red Man and a member of Santa Rosa Parlor of Native Sons. He is one of strong candidates who will be voted for at the August primaries for a place on the county ticket at the November election.

Phil Redmond for County Auditor

We would be remiss in our journalistic duty to the voters of Sonoma County if we did not call attention to the candidacy of Phil Redmond, of Sebastopol, for County Auditor of Sonoma. He is a young man in every way worthy of support of the voters at the primary election next month.

Mr. Redmond will be known to all our readers when informed that he is the same Phil Redmond who met with a dreadful railway accident on the Northwestern Pacific railroad about four years ago. His uncle, who was the engineer of the train that was wrecked and he the fireman, both stayed by their posts of duty, the engineer being instantly killed while Mr. Redmond was terribly scalded by the escaping steam of the derailed engine, so much so that his life was despaired of for over two years or more. So awful were his burns that skin grafting had to be resorted to and scores of prominent Sonoma county men came to his rescue as he lay hovering between life and death for months by furnishing portions of their anatomy to save the poor fellow's life. After a heroic battle lasting nearly three years the surgeons pronounced him cured after he had suffered intense agony. Few men could have survived his sufferings. He pulled through, however, but the accident has incapacitated Mr. Redmond from doing the hard manual labor he was accustomed to perform previous to the accident, and that is why he is asking the voters to support him for County Auditor, a position he is in every way qualified to fill with credit to himself as well as Sonoma County. If you vote for Phil Redmond you surely will make no mistake.

"Blind Pigs" in Sonoma Valley

In a recent issue, our contemporary down the street, in a sensational article published in a recent issue, asserts that there "are several blind pigs" in Sonoma Valley, "which the sheriff might attend to." If this be so, and the Expositor knows whereof it speaks, why does it not go farther and give the names of the offenders against the law. If it does this you can take it from us that peace officer Joe Ryan, Sonoma's candidate for sheriff, and the District Attorney's office of Sonoma county will do the rest. Show us.
